Vision 2026: Share the Word with the world

September 2026

MISSIONARY OF THE MONTH

Youth 71:Five

Psalm 71:5 "For You are my hope, O Lord God:
You are my trust from my youth.:

Youth 71Five provides opportunities for loving, caring, Christ-following adults to engage in the lives of lost and hurting kids. We aim to bring hope through relationships: providing a safe place to belong and sharing the message of the Gospel.

Kids need a safe place

Too many kids lack nurturing homes and a sense of belonging. At our 71Five centers, kids find a safe, fun place to relax and caring adults who take the time to know them. They have opportunities to discuss life lessons from a Christ-centered perspective.

Kids need hope and encouragement

Many young people make poor decisions related to drugs and violence. They often end up in juvenile detention centers feeling broken and hopeless. 71 Five staff and volunteers offer listening ears and the hope and encouragement found in a relationship with God.

Kids need someone to imitate

Kids are always looking for role models to imitate, but many grow up where they have no good role models to follow.

We are unique in our work

Although we offer fun and helpful programs for kids, our real work is building the relationship necessary for kids to thrive.

A quiet, withdrawn student began asking questions: "How can I be a light in my school when it's so hard to even open my Bible, let alone be light in public school? The student continues to grow and seek God's help to live out her faith.

Drinking from My Saucer

by John Paul Moore

I've never made a fortune and it's probably too late now.
But I don't worry about that much, I'm happy anyhow.
And as I go along life's way, I'm reaping better than I sowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'Cause my cup has overflowed.
I don't have a lot of riches, and sometimes the going's tough.
But I've got loved ones around me,
and that makes me rich enough.
I thank God for his blessings, and the mercies He's bestowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'Cause my cup has overflowed.
I remember times when things went wrong,
my faith wore somewhat thin.
But all at once the dark clouds broke,
and the sun peeped through again.
So, God, help me not to gripe about the tough rows that I've hoed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'Cause my cup has overflowed.
If God gives me strength and courage,
when the way grows steep and rough.
I'll not ask for other blessings,
I'm already blessed enough.
And may I never be too busy,
to help others bear their loads.
Then I'll keep drinking from my saucer,
'Cause my cup has overflowed.

The harvest is plentiful; the laborers are few. There is a need, but there are not enough who share the Good News. Our vision gives us direction and instruction; "Go into all the world and share the gospel". We are being obedient to the Lord when we share His Word with the world, your family, friends or neighbors. Will you be a laborer for Christ this month and share His Word and love to others?

If you hold a Bible in your hand, you hold hope.
If you hold a Bible in your heart, hope holds you.
